OUR PRESENTERS

AUDREY FINE has a considerable international dance repertoire, including Israeli as she used to teach for Sheffi many years ago. From her Shenanigans days, she has acquired a broad variety of European dances at different levels of challenge. This session will show links between the Israeli dances and the European and Middle Eastern influences that inform the choreographers' choices.

BRUCE McCLURE has been teaching Scottish Country Dancing for over thirty years, with a relaxed style and an enthusiasm for the joy of the dance. One of the earliest TSDAV members, he brings a wealth of knowledge to the TSDAV activities.

DARREN TAYLOR Darren started square dancing in 1987 and started calling in 1990. He is very active in arranging and calling at many Australian state and national Square Dance conventions. He has also called at 6 conventions in the USA and 1 in New Zealand. Since 1996, Darren has been the Club Caller for the Geelong Club Dancers.

GEORGE ANSELL An adult re-awakening of interest in dance under fortuitous guidance from several of England's folk dance luminaries of the 1980s, led to the good fortune of coming to live in Melbourne with an introduction to many of the folk dance groups here. George has run the English dance group in Melbourne for many years, and also the TSDAV Dance Composers' Competition for a number of years.

KEITH WOOD has been calling dances for several years, usually in Contra and English Country styles, at regular dance workshops in Sydney. He also composes dances in these styles and in Australian and Scottish Country styles and has published three books of his dances so far. His dances have won dance writing competitions within Australia.

ROGER GIFFORD has been for the past 18 years the convener and teacher of sCanDans, the Canberra Scandinavian Folk Dance Group. He is also one of the regular callers for the Canberra Contra Club. He has authored dances in both genres. Roger started his folk dance experience in about 1960 with Scottish Country dancing in his home town of Sheffield, England. From this beginning he consolidated his Scottish Country dancing at Nottingham University, then branched out in the late 60s into various folk styles at Cornell University, New York. In Australia, since 1970, he has been in various display teams (German, Israeli, Australian Colonial, Contra), focusing during the past two decades with Christine Gifford (Ridgway) on Nordic Dance displays and workshops.

Our DANCE MUSICIANS: Robert Stephens performs with Alan Musgrove (as the Pie Eaters) playing Australian old time/traditional music with fiddle, piano, accordion, guitar and vocals. Dance music and songs from early colonial days through to the 1930s! Alan has been collecting and performing this traditional music for forty years, while Robert is a thirty-year veteran of the Sydney, Canberra and Melbourne music scenes. Denise Hibbs is well known through her involvement with the Melbourne Colonial Dancers: a fiddle player, leader and music coordinator of the MCD Band for the past 15 years. She is particularly passionate about the preservation and playing of early Australian collected dance tunes, having worked closely with the late Peter Ellis. Jean McConnachie is very experienced fiddle player (bush, celtic, old time, jazz) and is a long-time member of the Melbourne Scottish Fiddle Club. Collectively, along with Richard Ayling, they are often seen fronting the line-up for MCD's live music nights.
