

The Details:

Music and Dancing in the street

From 11 till 12pm near the Saturday morning market in Railway Avenue. Come join us for a bit of fun.

Two Great Dance Workshops

#1 Bush Dance Fun And Frolics

A great selection of novel and fun dances, all suitable for dancers of any level.

1 to 3pm, $5 Senior Cits

#2 Dancing The Hexagon

Dances that explore the unique possibilities of dancing in a hexagon set, some new and some versions of old favourites.

3.30 to 5.30pm, $5 Senior Cits

Australian Dance Music Workshop

With Alan Musgrove.

A fascinating exploration with practical demonstrations on some aspects of traditional dance music with a knowledgeable expert on the subject. Bring an instrument if you have one as there will be some good rollicking playing going on.

1 to 2.15pm, $5 Scout Hall

Tin Whistle Workshop

With Maggie Somerville and Chris Healy.

The tin whistle is light, portable, cheap and pretty easy to play, so get some instruction from two experienced players. All ages and levels of experience. Bring your own whistle in D if you have one or some will be available.

2 to 3pm, $5 Senior Cits

Singing Workshop

With Greg Woodruff and Dennis O'Leary.

This workshop will concentrate on group singing in two or more parts. Accessible, easy to learn, great fun to sing. All are welcome.

2.30 to 3.30pm, $5 Scout Hall

Ukulele Workshop

With Don Fraser.

Some ukes available or bring your own for a brief tour of this versatile and easy to learn little instrument. All ages welcome.

3.30 to 4.45pm, $5 Scout Hall

Kids Music Workshop

With Colleen Brown and Harry Gardner.

Have fun with instruments. Learn simple tunes, parade to the showcase concert where winners of the colouring comp will be awarded prizes.

4 to 5.15pm, no charge Community Hall

Workshop Showcase Concert

An opportunity to showcase skills learnt at the workshops.

5.15 to 6.00pm Community Hall

Kids and Family Entertainment

Celebrate all things Australian at the craft table. See a puppet show with Harry, join the Maypole dancing, meet Michael The Balloonologist.

4 to 5.15pm Reserve and Community Hall

Sausage Sizzle / BYO dinner

Relax a bit before the Bush Dance. A sausage sizzle will be available by the Scouts (small charge), or you can bring your own dinner.

Tea and coffee will be available.

6 to 7.15pm Reserve and Community Hall

Family Bush Dance

At the Senior Citizens hall with the Blackberry Jam Bush Band.

Not to be missed, a bush dance for the whole family. All dances are called and walked through so even if you have never been bush dancing before you simply can't go wrong under Jenny's expert calling. For all ages, so round up your gang for a night to remember. A light supper is provided.
